SHORT COURSES

INTRODUCTION

Our services benefit any organization dedicated to the development and enhancement of skills and knowledge through training.

Frontline SHEQ Solutions (Pty) Ltd is a risk management company operating in the National compliance environment as well as the International standards and compliance market.

Many countries all over the world are looking for better ways of educating their people and developing their education and training systems in order that they might gain the edge in an increasingly competitive economic and global environment. Different qualifications and standards will impose different demands on curriculum development, delivery, and on assessment processes and teaching methods.

With our partners and stakeholders, we are world renowned providers of quality education, professional credentialing, and training certification. Providing you credentials of your competence and capability through personnel certification.

We deliver a powerful set of learner-centric tools and collaborative learning environments that empower both teaching and learning. Courses are continually being reviewed and improved to suit the current & evolving needs of users.

SHORT COURSES EXPLAINED

We provide both, accredited qualifications, in the form of Skills Programmes, as well as Short Courses. Short Courses are not qualifications and no credits towards a qualification may be allocated. Attendance certificates will be issued for the completion of short courses, but competencies can be proven through the course assessments.
